dvd portraits of jamaican music

If you are a music and want to know the true History of some of the best singer this is the dvd to get . A 52 minute film by Pierre Marc Simonin (Original English version and French version) with full colour 16 page booklet. With over an hour of bonus material including live footage of Israel Vibration, Toots & The Maytals, Ziggy Marley, U Roy, Yellow Man, Gregory Isaacs, Dennis Brown, Jamaica All Stars, Pepper Mento Band, and special moments with Lee Scratch Perry inside the famous Black Ark studio! This beautifully produced documentary gives the viewer a complete history of Jamaican music and illustrates clearly the enormous influence that this tiny island has had on the development of R&B, Soul, hip hop, rap, and techno music. The producer explores the roots of ska, mento, rock-steady, reggae, dub music, dancehall and hardcore dancehall (also called raggga) over the last forty years. The film takes you to the streets and slums of Kingston to witness the emergence of a rich, varied musical culture who's trunk is Reggae music and who's branches extend around the world. New interviews with all the greatest names in Jamaican music is brilliantly interspersed with backward glances through historical footage. Take an intimate journey down memory lane with Johnny Moore and The Skatalites, Toots & the Maytals, Bunny Wailer, Justin Hinds, Bunny Lee, Lee Scratch Perry. These privileged moments are complemented with rare TV archive material such as an eighteen year old Jimmy Cliff dancing the ska in 1962! And lots of other fabulous stuff that will delight and educate! You might also want to check out the fantastic Jamaica All Stars CD 'Right Tracks', one of the best Reggae discs I have ever heard!

DVD - the Harder They Come - Jimmy Cliff

ONE OF THE BEST FILM TO SEE ABOUT THE MUSIC AND HISTORY AND STRUGGLE SOME GO THROUGH TO MAKE IT . A must see film. Jamaican filmmaker Perry Henzell made reggae an integral player in his gritty 1973 saga of a renegade Kingston singer who becomes a modern Robin Hood, casting one of the style's earliest stars, Jimmy Cliff, in the lead, and filling this soundtrack--here presented in a remastered version--with classics from Toots & the Maytals ("Pressure Drop," "Sweet and Dandy"), Desmond Dekker ("Shanty Town"), the Melodians ("Rivers of Babylon"), and the Slickers ("Johnny Too Bad"). Cliff himself gets pole position, however, getting in the first ("You Can Get It If You Really Want") and last ("The Harder They Come") words in this first-rate reggae primer, which also features Cliff's enduring "Many Rivers to Cross.

SOUND TRACK FROM THE MOVIE

1. You Can Get It If You Really Want - Jimmy Cliff

2. Draw Your Brakes - Scotty

3. Rivers Of Babylon - The Melodians

4. Too Many Rivers To Cross - Jimmy Cliff

5. Sweet And Dandy - The Maytals

6. The Harder They Come - Jimmy Cliff

7. Johnny Too Bad - The Slickers

8. 007 (Shanty Town) - Desmond Dekker

9. Pressure Drop - The Maytals

10. Sitting In Limbo - Jimmy Cliff

About 80,000 women flock to Jamaica every year, many for more than its sunny beaches. This provocative documentary examines the island's sex tourism, as women from around the world come to get their groove back. The film also delves into the Rastafarian faith, distinguishing island playboys from the real-life Rastas. This film is about cultural misunderstandings and socioeconomic inequities amplifies voices not often heard. PLS. NOTE THESE ARE NOT RASTA BUT play boys DREAMS

DVD - Paul Bogle History of Jamaica National Hero

Paul Bogle is one of Jamaica national hero who help in the freedom and emancipation of slavery in Jamaica . you can also find a dvd documentary on his life on our dvd page

Paul Bogle, it is believed, was born free about 1822. He was a Baptist deacon in Story Gut, a few miles north of Morant Bay, and was eligible to vote at a time when there were only 104 voters in the parish of St. Thomas. He was a firm political supporter of George William Gordon.

Poverty and injustice in the society and lack of public confidence in the central authority, urged Bogle to lead a protest march to the Morant Bay courthouse on October 11, 1865.
